

YOUNG PEOPLE IN CONFERENCE

Baptist State Organization Conducted Helpful Programme at West Side Church—Address Along Historical Lines by Rev. A. R. Todd of Torrington—Rev. C. R. McNally, State President, Emphasizes Personal Work.

There was a gratifying attendance at the first Baptist church Wednesday both at the afternoon and evening services at the conference on Young People's work conducted by the state organization of Baptist Young People, Rev. Charles R. McNally of New London, president, conducted the devotional service which opened at 3 o'clock. This was followed by an address by Rev. A. R. Todd, of Torrington, who spoke upon the Young People of Our Convention. Historical and Prophecy, saying in part:

The first Baptist church in the state was organized in Connecticut at Mystic, in 1703, the first Connecticut convention organized in 1823. In 1831 was organized the Christian Endeavor society, while ten years later, 1841, was organized the Baptist Young People's Union.

The history of the people's work in Connecticut quite largely centers around the ideals of the men who have served as presidents. Rev. J. H. Strong, the first president, emphasized scholarship and mysticism. President H. E. Wise (former pastor of the First Baptist church) laid stress on the Christian culture courses. Rev. O. W. Foye urged the youth to consecration and enthusiasm. President S. D. Gould sought to emphasize the importance of cooperation and under his administration the Connecticut Baptist was started.

President McNally has emphasized the importance of deepening the spiritual life, uniting the separate societies and binding them to the state convention.

Mr. McNally as editor-in-chief of the Connecticut Baptist is bringing it to a high standard in quality and in inspiration. The future is very promising.

Rev. C. R. McNally of New London spoke upon The Daring of Youth and the New Evangelism, urging the youth to reach out to do personal work in leading others to Christ and His kingdom.

Standard of Excellence.

A supper was served at 6.15 by the Church Aid society. The evening service opened with a song service led by the Rev. Mr. McNally. Then an address was given by Rev. Mr. McNally upon the Standard of Excellence. He placed the standard at 100 points, a mark which should be the beacon light for all of Christ's people.

Rev. H. B. Slat of Waterbury gave a little idea of the enormous work done by the Baptists throughout the world. From the statistics of 1900 he said it is shown that $90,000,000 has been spent upon colleges and universities, works with 92 colleges cared for; 443 authors are numbered among the Baptists with 53 works published by them.

Questionnaire.

The latter part of the evening was given to asking and answering questions upon the Young People's society and its work. A vote of thanks was extended to the church and pastor by Rev. A. R. Todd of Torrington. Rev. McNally spoke of the inspiration and help that the meeting had given and hoped that the Young People's work and the church work would be more closely connected. One verse of Onward Christian Soldiers and the benediction closed the service.

TO PUBLISH BOOKLET.

Eastern Connecticut Business Men's Associations Will Show Merits of This Territory.

The chairman of the committees for the development of eastern Connecticut appointed by the Business Men's associations of the section in the rooms of the local association at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and held a short session devoted largely to a discussion of the proposed magazine putting forth the advantages of eastern Connecticut. Those present were Frank H. Smith, Herbert R. Branche and Charles I. Smith of this city, John Humphrey and J. T. Crutenden of New London, Rev. C. F. Eldredge of Niantic and L. O. Williams of Putnam.

It was finally decided that the magazine or booklet which has been under consideration for some time should be published. The book will be devoted to the agricultural and industrial advantages and scenic beauties of this section, and the members of the committee agreed to have the copy in the hands of H. R. Branche at the next meeting to be held Oct. 8. Work of preparing copy has been going on in various cities for six months, but it was not until Wednesday that the decision to carry through the project was reached.

J. T. Crutenden has been appointed chairman of the eastern Connecticut committee to succeed Judge Latimer of New London, resigned.

Hospitalize Long Point Cottage.

Mrs. Lottie Edgcomb, her mother, Mrs. Harriet Blaine, and grandmother, Mrs. Charlotte B. Lamb, have returned to their home in Mystic after passing two months at Mrs. Edgcomb's summer home, Saltair, on Grotton Long Point. The cottage was built last summer and is situated on Long Point, Tautouk street. Open house was kept during the summer and guests were entertained from Boston, Providence, Hartford, Norwich, Stonington, New London and Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rev. Dr. Slocum to Speak.

Rev. Joel B. Slocum, D. D., will address the ministers of the New Haven association at Essex this forenoon. His subject will be The Apostolic Succession of Baptist Principles.

For Sallow, Blotchy, Rough or Greasy Skins

(From Women's Tribune.)

Some skins require constant grooming. To keep them from becoming oily, muddy, blotchy, rough, or if such condition has developed, to overcome it. In such cases it is particularly inadvisable to keep piling on cosmetics which clog the pores, collect dust and dirt, making the complexion worse than ever. It's a lot more sensible to use ordinary mercurized wax, which literally absorbs a bad complexion. Apply the wax, like cold cream, before retiring, next morning, in washing it off, you'll wash away the dirt, like particles of the unsightly cuticle. Repeat for a week and you'll have an entirely new skin—soft, satiny, spotless and beautiful as a child's. The voice of nature is loud, persuasive at any drugstore, is all you'll need. If the skin be wrinkled or flabby, use the best beauty remedy, Mixo-plin, which hazel and luscious powdered exfoliate and use as a face bath. It works like a miracle, is yet entirely harmless.

UNIVERSALIST LADIES ELECT.

Mrs. Thomas Potter Not Allowed to Resign as President.

The Ladies' society of the Church of the Good Shepherd held its 69th annual meeting in the parlors of the church, Wednesday afternoon, with a good number in attendance. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Mrs. Thomas Potter; vice president, Mrs. E. A. Tracy; Mrs. George A. Keppeler, secretary; treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Johnson. Mrs. Nellie Bailey, who has been secretary of the society for 13 years, declined a re-election as vice president. Mrs. Potter has served as president and secretary for 18 years, declined a re-election at the unanimous protest at her announcement of her desire to be relieved of the office.

Interesting reports were given, the financial statement showing that the sum of $500 had been devoted towards defraying church expenses during the past year. Various committees were appointed and plans for the annual Christmas sale were discussed.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. William Metzger.

Edna Wheeler, wife of William Metzger, and formerly of this city, died suddenly Tuesday at her home in Savannah, Ga. She was the daughter of Charles and Jennie Wheeler. Mr. Metzger was employed here for 20 years as a compositor, and was being in the Boston job department a year ago this fall he went to Savannah, Ga., where he has been employed by the Brad-Hutton Co., printers. Mrs. Metzger died in this city, February to make her home in Savannah.

Besides her husband she leaves three children, Frederick, Ruth and Russell, all of Savannah, a brother and an aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Whaley of Trading Cove. Miss Bertha Metzger of Fifth street is sister-in-law.

The funeral was held Wednesday and burial was in Savannah.

Frank C. Kleindienst.

After an illness of over a year's duration, Frank C. Kleindienst died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Malcolm, 233 Franklin street, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. He had been ill with tuberculosis and for the last 19 weeks had been confined to his bed.

Mr. Kleindienst was born in Germany on the 28th of December, 1863, the son of Frank and Mary Kleindienst. When 18 years of age he came to live in this country, first locating in Rockville and then in Norwich. In October about thirty years ago he was united in marriage with Mary Sheffer, who died occurred about fifteen years ago. Mr. Kleindienst was employed by the Hopkins & Allen Arms company. Formerly he was a member of the German Lutheran church on Franklin street. He leaves two children, a son, Henry Kleindienst, and a daughter, Mrs. George Malcolm, with whom he made his home. His mother and two sisters who live in Germany also survive. Mr. Kleindienst was well liked by his many friends, who extend their heartfelt sympathy to the mourning family.

Boswell Avenue Trolley Delayed.

Construction of the Boswell avenue trolley extension has been temporarily delayed by the inability of the contractor who is to do the grading to get his men on the work at once. He has a sewer construction contract on hand at Baltic and as soon as that can be finished will shift his employees here for the Boswell avenue work. The trolley extension has been nearly completed.

Trolleyman on Vacations.

Inspector Reuben B. Ladd of the trolley company, Harry Williams and John Dawson, also employees of the company, are spending several days at the Brooklyn fair.

Day Steward Kinney, who began his vacation Monday, is acting as inspector during Mr. Ladd's absence. Night Steward George Horoux is taking Mr. Kinney's place and J. J. Shea is doing night duty at the square.

Senator Brandegee Attended Meeting.

Senator Brandegee went from New London to Washington Tuesday to attend a meeting of the republican congressional committee, of which he is first vice chairman. He said that no business of importance was transacted at the meeting.

J. B. Palmer at Brooklyn.

J. B. Palmer is showing his stock at the Brooklyn fair this week. He has won $200 on his cattle and $100 on sheep. He has sold an eight months' old bull calf, Lord Palmer, for $125 and a ram for $40. Next week he shows at Danbury.

Detailed as Range Officers.

Captains Connor, Morgan, Darby, Lieutenants Barrows and Warren of the Coast artillery corps, U. S. G., have been detailed as range officers at the state rifle and revolver matches on the West Haven ranges on Oct. 3 and 4.
